CHIEF SECRETARY
20 JUL 1944
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

My dear baird,

Yours D.O. of 15th LA: - 27 bry

have given in their names to join the Navy - but I expect a good many of the parents with object.
On looking through the rolls, I find 12 of these here nations who are put down as "Europeans" or "Anglo-Indians" - these I have scored out - & the fifteen boys listed in my telegram are by rolls & by appearance pure Europeans on both sides. It is bad luck on the "touch of the two-truth" - everyone seems to want the pure Europeans, & none the "Europeans" as defined by A.R.C. Vol. I required.

I enclose copy of telegram as required.
With many thanks for your note - Ever truly yours
