The list of libraries in the Presidency which contain 1,000 volumes and over submitted by the Director of Public Instruction is not perfect. The Director of Public Instruction states that, if necessary, he will submit a supplemental statement in respect of any other important libraries that might be furnished to him.

2. The list has been compared with the one annexed to G.O. No. 831, Educational, dated the 19th December 1906. Many of the important libraries which were included in the previous list, e.g.—the Tanjore Palace library (No. 23), Adyar library (No. 11), Medical College library (No. 9), the Gopal Rao library, Kumbakōnam (No. 12)—do not find a place in the present one. Further, two items, viz., the Maharaja's College library, Vizianagram, and the Madras Christian College library, have been entered twice in the list—vide items 2 and 211 and 58 and 215. Submitted that the list may be returned to the Director of Public Instruction who may be requested to resubmit it after thorough revision. A draft memorandum is submitted for approval.

From the Director of Public Instruction, dated the 18th December 1916. R.O.C. 7283,

The list of libraries in the Presidency which contain 1,000 volumes and over submitted by the Director of Public Instruction is not perfect. The Director of Public Instruction states that, if necessary, he will submit a supplemental statement in respect of any other important libraries that might be furnished to him.

2. The list has been compared with the one annexed to G.O. No. 831, Educational, dated the 19th December 1916. Many of the important libraries which were included in the previous list, e.g.—the Tanjore Palace library (No. 23), Adyar library (No. 11), Medical College library (No. 9), the Gopal Rao library, Kumbakōnam (No. 12)—do not find a place in the present one. Further, two items, viz., the Maharaja's College library, Vizianagram, and the Madras Christian College library, have been entered twice in the list—vide items 2 and 211 and 58 and 215. Submitted that the list may be returned to the Director of Public Instruction who may be requested to resubmit it after thorough revision. A draft memorandum is submitted for approval.
