Read the following:--

Letter from E.W. Legh, Esquire, I.C.S., Collector of Salem - to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, Madras, No.1965/D of 1917 dated 9th July 1917.

I have the honour to submit for favour of the Board's orders a copy of a letter from the President, District Board, Salem, recommending the exemption from examination rules of R.R. Srinivasa Rao, Clerk, Deputy ~~Mail~~

Collector's

Collector's Office, Sankari, and to report as follows:--

2. The Clerk is an unpassed candidate and holds a permanent post on Rs.20 in the Sankari Deputy Collector's office.
3. In 1912 at the instance of the then Deputy Collector of the division, who was very favourably impressed with the exceptionally good work of the clerk, my predecessor, Mr. Bedford, addressed the Board ^{for} sanction exempting the clerk from examination rules to hold appointments carrying a salary of Rs.35 - vide this office letter No.4326-D, dated 13th December 1912 disposed of in Board's Proceedings No.1211, dated 24th December 1912. The Board directed that Government in the Educational Department should be addressed direct in the matter.
4. The Government, however, declined to grant the exemption. S.O. 124
12-2-13
5. The clerk's work since has been found equally efficient and in 1915 he was appointed head clerk on Rs.30 under the Special Deputy Collector for the acquisition of lands for the Suramangalam-Salem Railway. He did this difficult work exceedingly well. After the completion of this work he was taken to the Collector's office temporarily on the recommendation of the Special Deputy Collector to attend to Land Acquisition work. His work then came under my own personal observation and I found him distinctly above the average of the class that we now can obtain for the lower posts of the Revenue service.
6. It is exceedingly difficult now to get any one at all capable capable of doing even passable work for less than Rs.30. There is no reason at all to presume that a school final candidate will be better than one who has not secured that qualification; it is very much a matter of personal ability. Hence it becomes necessary simply in order to get work done to keep and occasionally promote men who are found fit whether technically qualified or not. I therefore strongly recommend that the Board will be pleased to exempt the clerk permanently from the examination rules to hold posts on Rs.30 in the Revenue department.

Copy of letter Ref.165-L.F., dated 10th February 1917, from the President of the Salem District Board, to the Collector of Salem.

NC. I have the honour to forward herewith the letter of the President, Sankari Taluk Board, No.131-D, dated 28th January 1917, and to state that the clerk R.R.Srinivasa Rao referred to by him is the clerk that did the acquisition work in the Collector's office relating to the acquisition for Suramangalam-Salem Railway. I agree with the Taluk Board President that the clerk would richly deserve special treatment and venture to hope that the Collector's personal opinion of the clerk will support this view. He is a permanent clerk on Rs.20/- in the Revenue Divisional Office, Sankari, and by reason of his not being qualified by Educational tests is unfit for permanent promotion in the Revenue line. The Pre-

President, Taluk Board, proposes to appoint him as second clerk, Taluk Board's office, and give him Rs.25/- the maximum pay of the appointment, either by obtaining the special sanction of Government or by temporarily revising the scale of pay of the appointment, which, for a limited period, is within his powers. I think it would be more advantageous if he should be temporarily exempted by the Board to enable him to hold appointments of Rs.30 and below in the Revenue Department. He can then be employed in the Local Fund Department also. He will be a very useful clerk in both the branches. I am aware that Government in their order No.124 Miscellaneous dated 12th February 1913, declined to grant the exemption vide your No.622-D, dated 26th February 1913. The power of exemption now, however, vests in the Board of Revenue and I venture to think that both from the point of view of efficient office work and of the point of view of appreciating the work of a useful clerk, it is worthwhile addressing the Board again.

I have the honour to request the favour of a favourable consideration of this suggestion.

Reference.

Submitted for the orders of Government, with reference to Government Order No.124, Miscellaneous, Educational, dated 12th February 1913.

2. The Board supports the Collector's recommendation as the exemption of the Clerk is sought in the interests of Public Service.

To the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department.

OFFICE NOTE.

SUBJECT. Exemption from Examination Rules of R.R. Srinivasa Rao, clerk, Dy. Colbr. 13
Office. Sankari, Salem Dt.

From the Board of Rev. L.R. Refce. 2684/17-1
dated 1-8-17

Register No. 1968 A/17

^{under}
To Secretary.

In 1913, the Collector of Salem recommended the permanent exemption of R.R. Srinivasa Rao, 5th clerk of the Sankari ~~Division~~, Deputy Collector's office, from Examination rules for posts up to Rs 35 p.m. in view of the exception-ally good nature of the ^{clerk's} work. Govt. however did not consider that a case had been made out for the exemption and refused to sanction it - vide G.O. 124 Mis. Cdl., dated 12-2-1913. The Collector now reports that the clerk's work has continued efficient, and in view of the fact that it is exceedingly difficult now to get any one at all capable of doing even passable work for less than Rs 30, he strongly recommends that the clerk may be permanently exempted from the examination rules to hold posts on Rs. 30 in the Revenue Department. The Board of Revenue supports the recommendation and says that the exemption is sought in the interests of public service.

N.C.F.

Orders are solicited whether this Department will support the proposal.

I think we may. The clerk is evidently of more than average ability. If he is not promoted, he cannot be expected to remain in Govt. service.
