Sir, (Through the Accountant - General)

In their orders No. 69 Edl., dated 13th March 1916 and No. 546 Edl. Mis., dated 18th May 1916, Government while appointing Miss Gordon to be sub pro tem Lecturer on Kindergarten in the Teachers' College, Saidapet, limited her salary to Rs. 200/- per mensem. Miss Gordon states that she has been working in the college since March 1916 and that she finds it very expensive to maintain a conveyance which she is obliged to do as she lives in Vepery (Madras) with her parents and has to go daily to Saidapet and she requests that she may be granted the house rent allowance of Rs. 25/- per mensem and FORWARDED.

2. There is no audit objection to Miss C. Gordon being granted, under Article 144(b) of the Civil Service Regulations, the full pay of the appointment of Lecturer on Kindergarten, Teachers' College, viz. Rs. 250/- and to her being granted a conveyance allowance of Rs. 30/- per mensem as recommended by the Director of Public Instruction.

the carriage allowance of Rs. 30/- per mensem which Miss R. MacLeod, the permanent incumbent of the post was in receipt of. The Principal, Teachers' College, recommends the application and states that her work as Lecturer in Kindergarten in the college is quite satisfactory.

2. Miss Gordon's request for an increase of her emoluments after more than a year's good work seems to be deserving of consideration and I have the honour to recommend that she be allowed as a special case the full salary of the post, viz., Rs. 250/- per mensem under Article 144 (b) of the Civil Service Regulations and granted a conveyance allowance of Rs. 30/- per mensem to meet a portion of the cost of upkeep of a motor car which she has been using for some time past. I would in this connection point out that Miss Gordon should be treated only as Acting Lecturer on Kindergarten in the Teachers' College, Saidapet, since Miss MacLeod has been declared to be only acting as Superintendent of the Presidency Training School for Mistresses, Egmore -- vide G.O. No. 426 Edl., dated 17th April 1916; hence the need for the application of Article 144 (b) of the Civil Service Regulations to her case.

3. I see no occasion for the grant to her of any rent allowance as it is understood she is staying at Vepery along with her parents.

I have the honour to be,

S i r,

Your most obedient servant,

[Subject - Grant of full pay (Rs 250) & of carriage allowance (Rs. 30) to Miss C
Gordon, Lecturer on Kindergarten, Teachers' College, Saidapet.]

For the circumstances in which Miss Gordon's pay was fixed at Rs. 200 per mensem please see ^{notes on} pages 2 and 3 of go no 69 Ed., (R) dated the 13th March 1916. In the circumstances now explained by the Director in his current letter, there appears to be no objection to the grant to her of the full pay of the post (Rs 250)
and of the conveyance allowance (Rs. 30).
² A draft order is submitted for approval.
~~It is suggested that the proposed pay be granted~~

If the case requires further Examination. What are the chances of Miss Gordon's retaining her permanent post? The original proposal to pay her only Rs 200 was based on that. What are the circumstances under which ~~the~~ carriage allowance was allowed to the former incumbent & do they exist in the case of Miss Gordon? Why was she not paid this allowance when she was first appointed to act in the post last year?

CA

(1) Submitted that Miss Gordon has at present no permanent appointment in the Educational Department. One of the conditions laid down in ~~the conditions~~ while she was given a scholarship of Rs 50 per annum in order to enable her to undergo a course of kindergarten training in England was that after her return to Madras she should serve the Educational Department for at least five years or refund the scholarship granted to her - para. 4 of letter to India, no. 690 Ed., dated the 26th July 1913. There was ~~however~~ no undertaking by the Govt. to give her any minimum salary on appointment. While recommending her appointment in the ^{place of} Miss Rebekah Mackes, the D.O. ^{however} brought to notice that when Miss Gordon was given a scholarship at home, there was an understanding that she should be recommended for a place on Rs. 200 - ~~provisionally~~ vide Mr. Stone's d.o (P.S) on p. 21 of fo. no. 314 R., dated the 12th November 1915. According to avoid the possibility of her having to drop below Rs. 200 it was thought better to start her on this sum - please see the Director's note on page 3 of fo. no. 69 R. dated the 17th March 1916.

Miss Dixon's place in the Kindergarten Training School for mistresses is now permanently vacant and it is not known whether the Director would recommend the confirmation of Miss Machead as Superintendent school. It is not therefore possible for what the chances of Miss Gordon's rise from the post of kindergarten teacher and perhaps the D.P.I. may be consulted.

(2) For the circumstances in which conveyance allowance of Rs 30 per m was sanctioned to Miss Lillingham and Miss Machead, the predecessors of Gordon in office, attention is directed to letters no 759 dated the 22nd Dec 1907 and no 48 dated the 26th January 1909. Gordon's case appears to be similar. These last are also competent to sanction the grant of the allowance.

Miss Lillingham, the previous of the post, was recruited in 1907 and took the appointment under covenant under which she paid a salary of Rs 250, a house rent allowance of Rs 20 in lieu of quarters. She was subsequently granted a conveyance allowance of Rs 30 per m. The General sanction of the post. of Miss Machead who succeeded was granted similar concessions under similar sanction.

+ conveyance

This MacLeod, was originally granted an acting allowance of only Rs 200. & the D.P. when proposing her appointment stated that she need not be given the house rent & conveyance allowances.

It is now proposed to raise her pay from Rs 200 to Rs 250. & to give her a conveyance allowance of Rs 30. i.e. raise her total emolument by Rs 80.

The circumstances under which her pay was originally fixed at Rs 200 still continue; there is still chance of Miss MacLeod's reversion so long as she is not confirmed in her new post.

As regards the allowances, the two allowances sanctioned to the previous incumbents were personal. But the reasons under which they were granted to them hold good in this case also. It was open to the D.P. to have proposed her being given the allowance on her first appointment of this fordon. As the D.P. recommends the grant of only one allowance it may be sanctioned. The sanction of the Govt. of India is not necessary.

I think it unfair to limit the pay to Rs 200. She is urgently doing 250 Rs worth of work. I am for sanctioning the D.P.'s proposals. The D.P. will have to point out funds.

18/8/17

Financial

Miss Gordon does not ask for an increase of pay. What she petitions for is the house rent & conveyance allowance enjoyed by her predecessors. The D.P. does not think this house allowance called for but still recommends more than Miss Gordon has asked for. He suggests pay 250 + conveyance allowance Rs 30 - total Rs 280 as against Rs 255 Miss Gordon has asked for. As house rent is out of the question according to the D.P. would Edw. object to retaining the pay at Rs 200. and adding on a conveyance allowance of Rs 30? It must be remembered that she acting officer does not invariably draw the pay of the permanent incumbent. It seems also necessary not to encourage the D.P.I. in the idea that an increase in emoluments after a year's good ^{work} necessarily draws consideration.

Submitted that in the recommendation roll referred to, it is proposed to confirm Miss McLeod, ~~as~~ in the D.E.S. as Supdt., Presidency Training School for Mistresses and Miss Gordon in ^{Miss McLeod's} permanent place of Teacher or Kindergarten in the Teachers' College, Saidapet. The sanction of the Secretary of State is necessary for Miss McLeod's confirmation. It will therefore take some time to give effect to these ^{above} arrangements.

2 When the Secretary of State's sanction to the confirmation of Miss McLeod is received, the question of the date from which Miss Gordon should be allowed to draw the full pay of the post (Rs. 20) may be settled. In the meanwhile the draft order below may issue with the omission of the second sentence.
