Subject, Scholarships in the Queen Mary's College for women.

[C.P. 853 B]. From the D.P.D. C No 6907 dt the 18. 8. 17

Vide Stat on p. 2 of G.O. No. 1069 dt the 9-10-16.

In submitting the scheme of scholarships in the Queen Mary's College for 1916-17 the D.P.D. asked for sanction for the continuance of the scheme in 1917-18 also. But the Govt. did not sanction it as the continuance of the college itself was then sanctioned only up to the 30th June 1917 - para. 1 of office note on pages quotes to G.O. No 1069 Home (En) dt the 9-10-16. The continuance of the college up to the 30th June 1918 having since been sanctioned (G.O. No 801 dt 15.6.17) the D.P.D. requests sanction to the continuance of the scholarships in the college for 1917-18 also. The number of scholarships now proposed is in certain cases in excess of that proposed last year but it is explained by the fact that the number of scholarships depends on the number of students in the several classes. The proposal may, it is submitted be sanctioned. The scheme is only temporary and it is to be revised on the establishment of the college on a permanent basis - pages of G.O. No 1069 dt 9. 10. 16.
