No. 10550/16

Station MADRAS, Dated the 5th September 1917.

From (Name) The Hon'ble Mr. J.H. Stone, M.A., F.R.H.S., C.I.E.
(Designation) Director of Public Instruction, Madras

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Home (Education) Department.

Sir,

With reference to G.O.No.174, Home (Education), dated 14th February 1917, requesting the Director of Public Instruction to report to Government the result of his examination of the question of preparing a list of secondary grade teachers qualified to be headmasters of incomplete secondary schools, I have the honour to report that I have had lists of such teachers drawn up by the Inspectors of Schools, but that I consider that no good end would be served by publishing them for the reasons stated below:-

(1) Ordinarily the rule about an L.T. Headmaster for an independent ^{affiliated} incomplete secondary school is not worked with harshness as I stated at the time of my reply in the Legislative Council, there were only 29 L.T.'s employed in 165 schools.

(2) the mere drawing up of lists would not make it feasible to employ the teachers in the lists in incomplete secondary schools in view of the fact that these teachers are free agents, are, mostly, comfortable and settled where they are and may not be disposed to serve strange masters in an incomplete secondary school under a strange management

(3) the question of pay is the first thing a teacher would consider and the pay offered in most incomplete secondary schools would not attract the majority of the teachers at any rate the teachers with higher qualifications of general education in the list drawn up. Further most of those in these lists are in schools of long-standing and under reputable management and would not want a change.

2. I would, however, state that I shall consider the appearance of the names of teachers in the lists drawn up as a presumption in favour of their being fit for the post of headmasters in incomplete secondary schools.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Janaka

for Director of Public Instruction.
