R. No. 249 of 17.

Station Madras, Dated the 30th July 1917.

From (Name) S. W. G. I. MacIver, Esq., I.C.S.,

(Designation) Paymaster Carnatic Stipends, Madras.

To The Chief Secretary to Government,
Political Department.

Sir,

In forwarding ^{the} memorial of Karim-un-nisa Begam requesting that her grandson Mir Zama Hussain may be exempted from the examination rules, I have the honour to state that Ghulam Musshan Ali Afzal, who is said to be the grandfather of Mir Zama Hussain, was a Carnatic Stipendiary in receipt of a life grant of Rs. 20 per mensem under G.O. No. 255 Pol., dated 17th June 1873 which ceased with his death on 17th October 1912.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

MacIver
Paymaster, Carnatic Stipends.

The humble petition of Karim-Unisa

Begum the only surviving niece of the late Nawab Mubarak-Unisa Begum Sahiba first wife of Nawab Hussain-nul-Mulk Bahadur son of Nawab Mohamed Ali the Wallajah of the Carnatic.

May it please your Excellency.

Relying upon the sympathetic attitude of your Excellency benign Government towards ameliorating the present condition in public life specially those of respectable descendants, I most respectfully beg to bring the following lines to your Excellency's most kind and generous consideration.

2. That my aunt the late Nawab Mubarak-Unisa Begum Sahiba was a recipient of Rs.317 per month. But three or four years prior of her death, she herself most willingly applied to the Government to cut short her stipend to Rs.165 only per month. But expressed her cherished desire not to over look the interest of her nearest descendants as she was highly anxious to make them prosperous in path of life. And accordingly in 1870^{4/1872} your benign Government had given an assurance that they would support, and maintain and lend a helping hand to her dependants and descendants in whatever manner they would seek their help. Subsequent to this solid promise was made by the Government none of her descendants had approached the Government with any prayer up to this date. But your Excellency's humble petitioner is the first one to respectfully beg to submit the following my humble prayer with a fervent hope of meeting with complete success.

3. That your Excellency's humble petitioner's grand son Mir Zama Husain is a Clerk in the High Court Appellate side on Rs.30 per month, is an unpassed candidate so there is little hope of his promotion to higher grade services. And studied up to the Matriculation Class, and could not prosecute his further studies for want of means and owing to his father's death in youth. Here I beg to submit that his income of Rs.30 per mensem is hardly sufficient to meet the expenses of maintaining his large family including your petitioner whose stipend of Rs.12 was commuted by her son-in-Law more than 25 years ago.

4. That your Excellency's humble petitioner in the closing days of her life is quite anxious to see Mir Zama Husain her only grand son sufficiently protected from your Excellency's generosity in exempting him from the Examination rules-a fact which is not unprecedented, several members of the Carnatic family have been fortunate enough to get exemption sought for..

5. On or about the 8th January 1916, the Government convened a special meeting at Fort St. George consisting high officials including The Hon'ble Mr. Justice Abdur Rahim as well as the leading members of the carnatic family with a view of bettering the present condition of the young and promising members of our House whose educational attainments were not such as to qualify for higher appointments should be immediately exempted from the examination rules and to give preference to other communities. In accordance with the object of that meeting I most respectfully beg to submit this my humble petition for your Excellency's favourable consideration.

6. In conclusion I respectfully beg to be pardoned for intruding upon your Excellency's most precious time with a long petition as this for which, act of benevolence I shall as in duty bound and ever pray for your Excellency's long life as well as the longevity of British Raj upon which the sun never set and I as a loyal subject of our beloved Emperor in my daily prayers pray the almighty God for the speedy end of the present war with great and

Hon'ble Sir,

I am directed to return the papers enclosed with your letter No. 817 B-1, Home (Education), dated the 28th August 1917 and to state that the Hon'ble the Chief Justice is not aware of the decision of the Government regarding the preferential treatment of members of the Carnatic family said to have been arrived at after a conference held in 1916 referred to in para 5 of the memorial of Karim-un-nisa Begam. Mir Zama Hussain is an unpassed clerk on Rs. 20 employed in the High Court. He applied to the

2 13

Hon'ble the Chief Justice on the 3rd March 1916 for exemption from the Examination Rules but the Chief Justice saw no special grounds for the exemption asked for as the clerk had been confirmed only a year before. The clerk has since applied to be declared an insolvent and the Hon'ble the Chief Justice is in the circumstances not prepared to make any recommendation in his behalf.

I have the honour to be,
