Note: Mr. Longhurst did not send in his programme for the quarter ending 30th Sep. apparently because his privilege leave and 180 R will necessitate did not give him much time for outdoor work.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

A. H. Longhurst
Superintendent.

October 1917.

Inspection of the Kadamba Kesvara Temple at Kadambarkoil in Kulitalai in the Trichinopoly District. The Collector of South Kanara has requested me to inspect an ancient site near Udipi which he thinks should be excavated by this department. While in South Kanara I shall inspect the recent repairs to the Sultan's Battery at Mangalore. Return to headquarters. A new P.W.D. Sub Overseer has been appointed as "Superintendent of Hampi Ruins" in the Bellary District and it will be necessary for me to visit Hampi and show him what his duties are and instruct him with regard to repairs now in progress. I have not yet visited Kampli, one of the old outposts of the city of Vijayanagar and as there ^{are} certain ruined buildings awaiting inspection there, I propose to carry out a survey of this site while I am in the neighbourhood.

November 1917.

Inspection of Ancient monuments in the Huvinahadagalli and Harpanahalli taluks of the Bellary District.

December 1917.

Continuation of the work of excavation of the ancient burial site at Gajjalakonda in the Kurnool District already sanctioned by Government. This work was started in 1915 but has not been completed owing to want of funds.
