No. 146. 2

21.2.17 DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION.
(Education)
Delhi, the 16th February 1917.

From

The Hon'ble Sir E.D. MacLagan, K.C.I.E., C.S.I.,
Secretary to the Government of India,

To

The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Educational Department.

Sir,

In a sub-committee on educational statistics connected with the Conference of Directors of Public Instruction which was recently held at Delhi, the following conclusion was recorded.

"It was the feeling of the Conference that it would be well if some homogeneity of nomenclature and numbering could be adopted in different provinces for school classes. It was suggested that the lowest class of every kind of school should be numbered I (the phrase 'infant class' being dropped), and so on upwards'.

2. I am to forward the above extract for information and for such action as may be found possible by the various local Governments concerned.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

W. M. L.

Secretary to the Government of India.
