Sir,

I beg to submit herewith a copy of a book entitled "R. G. Bhandarkar Commemoration Volume", (price Rs. 12/-) being a collection of essays written for the occasion by Sir Ramkrishna Gopal Bhandarkar's students, friends and admirers in and out-side India and presented to him as a mark of respect and affection upon the completion of his 80th. year on the 6th. of 1917.

The volume contains 40 original essays on different subjects embodying the latest research in the various branches of Oriental and in the matter of typography and general get-up it would compare favourably with any publication turned out by an Indian Printing house. The volume has been highly spoken of by competent judges.

By the very nature of the case the volume would not command general sale, and the present enhanced price of paper and other material has made the publication of the volume a work of great expense altogether beyond our expectation. Consequently I beg to submit that you will kindly move your Government to give a liberal patronage to the volume by purchasing at least 50 copies of it.

Thanking you in anticipation of a favourable reply,

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

W. S. S. S. S.

Manager.
