With reference to para 3 of G.O. copy of the Director's letter referred to above and enclosures are submitted herewith for the information of Government.

The Inspectress should have refunded the money into the Bank and not retained it in her own hands for nearly four months when it was not required for immediate disbursement.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

[Signature]
Deputy Accountant-General.

Letter No. 708 dated 7th February 1917 from the Director of Public Instruction to the Accountant-General, Madras.

With reference to your letter No. Kis. P.A. 15-19311 dated 26th January 1917, I have the honour to forward herewith copies of letter R.C. No. 285 Gl. of 1916 dated 3rd February 1917 received from the Inspectress of Girls' Schools, Central Circle, and of my Proceedings R.C. No. 708/17 dated 7th February 1917.

Letter R.C. No. 285 Gl. of 1916 dated 3rd February 1917 from the Inspectress of Girls' Schools, Central Circle.

With reference to your proceedings R.C.No. 708 of 1917 dated 31st January 1917, I have the honour to state that the rent of the Government Brahman Widows' Hostel, Triplicane, for September 1916, was drawn on the 1st October 1916 in advance, as usual, and sent to the Superintendent of the Hostel with instructions to disburse the amount to the landlord and submit the stamped voucher immediately in token of payment. The Superintendent wrote wrote a number of letters to the house owner for the stamped voucher, but no reply was received from him for any of the letters. On the 20th January last she was instructed by me to refund the amount into the Bank of Madras at once which she did accordingly. The delay in obtaining the stamped voucher was due to the absence of the landlord from Madras and to the Superintendent's ignorance of his whereabouts.

Proceedings No. R.C. 708/17 dated 7th February 1917 of the Director of Public Instruction, Madras..

Read the following:--

Correspondence ending with the Inspectress of Girls' Schools, Central Circle's letter R.C. No. 285 Gl. of 1916 dated 3rd February 1917.

The amount in question should have been refunded as soon as it was found that a proper receipt was not forthcoming. There was no justification for keeping the money for nearly 4 months. The refund of the money should have been reported to the Accountant-General.

2. The Director regrets to note that the Inspectress did not reply to the Accountant-General's three reminders dated 22nd November 1916, 13th December 1916 and 6th January 1917 and hopes that there will not be grounds for similar complaints in future.
