ABSTRACT.—Sanctioning certain alterations in, and additions to, the University Regulations relating to the L.M. & S. and M.B. & B.S. degrees.

II

Letter—from F. DEWSBURY, Esq., B.A., LL.B., Registrar, University of Madras.
To—the Secretary to Government, Home (Education) Department.
Dated—the 24th August 1917.
No.—5959.

In G.O. No. 721, Home (Education), dated 30th May 1917, the Government sanctioned extensive additions to, and alterations in, the regulations for the L.M. & S. and M.B. & B.S. degrees adopted by the Senate at its adjourned meeting held on 10th March 1917. In the revised regulation 300, through a clerical error in drafting, the necessary reference to the subjects of ophthalmology and jurisprudence was omitted. The Syndicate, accordingly, recommended to the Senate at its special meeting held on the 17th August 1917—that for regulation 300 which reads :—

No candidate for the L.M. & S. degree shall be declared to have passed the examination who fails to obtain one-third of the marks in the written part of each subject, one-third of the marks in clinical and oral medicine taken together, in clinical and oral surgery taken together, in operative surgery, and in practical and oral midwifery, etc., taken together and 40 per cent of the aggregate number of marks.

the following be substituted :—

Regulation 300.—No candidate for the L.M. & S. degree shall be declared to have passed the examination who fails to obtain one-third of the marks in ophthalmology and in medical jurisprudence, respectively, one-third of the marks in the written part of each of the remaining subjects, one-third of the marks in clinical and oral medicine taken together, in clinical and oral surgery taken together, in operative surgery, and in practical and oral midwifery, etc., taken together, and 40 per cent of the aggregate number of marks.

The alteration in the regulation was adopted by the Senate and I am directed to submit the same for the sanction of Government under section 25 (1) of the Indian Universities Act, 1904.
