I have known A.M. Vajravelu Mudaliar for the last 3 years. He was reading in the VI Form of the Cuddalore College. He is a very respectable young gentleman, and while he was in the College, he was, I may say, a model student, intelligent and obedient. He won the esteem and regard of all his teachers. I am sure he will get on very well and he has my best wishes.

of Dist. Judge's letter on pp 243 & 4.

The grounds for exemption are reported to be (i) that the applicant is well behaved and has been doing his work satisfactorily and (ii) that he is a student of respectable connections. These can be said of many others in service and it is doubtful whether they would be considered sufficient by the Govt. for the grant of the concession applied for. The Judicial Section may be consulted with in the first instance.

Apart from the fact of the applicant being a Sindhi & well connected, the Dist. Judge considers that the applicant are doing very well as a Deputy Magistrate. In the circumstances it is for consideration whether his exemption may be recommended.

2. Sonmurti is not a backward district. The case for exemption is not therefore strong.
