To

The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Home Department, (Educational section).

Through

His Honor the Chief Judge,
Court of Small Causes,
M A D R A S.

The humble petition of T. Purushothama Mudaliar, Interpreter, Court of Small Causes, Madras, respectfully sheweth as follows :-

(1) That the petitioner respectfully begs to submit that he has put in a total service of more than 15 years in the Judicial Department and has been recently transferred on promotion to the Court of Small Causes, Madras, as Interpreter on Rs.70/- from the Assistant Sessions Judge's Court, Tanjore, where he was Head clerk for about 6 months doing the duties connected with the trial of sessions.

(2) That with a view to better ^{his} prospects he is desirous of appearing for the Criminal Judicial Test, Lower Grade.

(3) That under the ^{Special Test} Public Service Notification he is not qualified to appear for the said examination as he has not passed the late First in Arts examination.

(4) That he further begs to be permitted to add that he has passed the following examinations.

1. Matriculation with Handwriting Test,
2. Translation Test, Higher Grade, Telugu,
3. ----- do. ----- Tamil,
4. Account Test, Higher Grade,
5. Civil Judicial Test,
6. Theory and Practice of Commerce, Advanced Grade

and

7. Note (2) to sub.
4 of the Spl. Test
Notification (2)

23/4
and 7. Banking, Intermediate Grade.

The petitioner therefore begs to request that the benign Government may be pleased to exempt him from the examination rules so as to enable him to appear for the Criminal Judicial Test, Lower Grade.

For which act of kindness the humble petitioner shall Ever Pray.

OFFICE OF SUPERINTENDENT,
ARMY CLOTHING,
Madras, 11th October 1901.

T. Purushothama Moodeliar has been employed as a temporary clerk for six months in this Department during which time he gave satisfaction. His attendance was regular.

(Sd.) H. HARVEY KELLY,
Colonel,
Superintendent, Army Clothing.

Mr. T. Purushothama Mudaliyar served under me for about two years as Head Clerk of the District Munsiff's Court, Sholinghur, during the time I presided over that Court and I am glad to certify that he discharged his duties to my entire satisfaction. Whatever work he was entrusted with, he applied himself earnestly to it and did it thoroughly. As Chief Ministerial Officer he showed an intelligent grasp of the necessary provisions of law and rules, and proved himself very useful to the Court. His command of English is as good as that of an ordinary graduate and he has a clear head and quick understanding. My close observation of him led me to form a good opinion of his character and I have heard nothing against it. His attainments and character entitle him to rise higher in the official ladder and he has my best wishes for his success.

T. Purushothama

(Sd.) P. SUBBIAH,
Principal District Munsiff.

SHOLINGHUR.

26—10—1911.

I have known T. Purushothama Mudaliar the Head Clerk of this Court for the last two years and odd that I presided over it. He is a very capable Head Clerk. He is an intelligent, smart, hardworking young man. To add to these he is a thoroughly honest officer. It is rare to find a man of his capacity among Matriculates. His knowledge of the English language is as good as that of an ordinary Graduate. He richly deserves encouragement and being quite young, I am sure he will one day rise to the position of Sheristadar of the District Court and fill it honorably if opportunities are given him. He has my best wishes for his speedy advancement and prosperity.

(Sd.) J. SUNDARANANA RAO,
District Munsiff.

T. Purushothama Mudaliar was Head Clerk under me for over eighteen months and I have great pleasure in testifying to the high efficiency with which he managed the office. He has obtained good testimonials from every officer under whom he has served and I am glad to endorse what all they have said of him. His knowledge of English is as good as that of any ordinary graduate. To all the above, he adds a high character and pleasing manners. Had an opportunity occurred in my time for recommending him to promotion in any of the superior Courts in the District, I would have strongly recommended him.

I trust his future will be as bright as his merit deserves.

(Sd.) R. NARASIMHAM,
District Munsif.

ARNI, }
18th Jan. 1914. }

Mr. Purushotham Mudaliar is an ideal Head Clerk at once able intelligent and efficient. His character is of the best, with no admixture of cunning or intrigue. His knowledge of English is equal to that of an ordinary graduate. A superior has but to know him in order to appreciate his worth. I am sanguine that he will rise in the service as he richly deserves to do.

The Chief Judge may be presumed to support as he has forwarded the application; the criticism for testing this application is known that the exemption is in the public interest and that the ~~is~~ circumstances are exceptional. ~~Further~~ judged by action of their test does this application appear to demand approbation. I don't think we can accept the draft.
