Under the sanction conveyed in the Secretary of State's despatch No. 30, Public, dated the 30th December 1910, printed on page 3 of G.O.No. 119, Educational, dated the 28th February 1911, this Government <sup>Cau</sup> ~~is competent~~ to sanction the payment of the allowance to any one who is appointed to perform the duties of the office irrespective of the pay of his permanent appointment if he should hold one.

2. Consequent on the death of the late Rao Bahadur M. Ranga Achariyar, who held the appointment of the Registrar of Books from 1907, the Director recommends the appointment of M.R.Ry. Rao Bahadur A.C. Pranatartihara Ayyar, retired Inspector of Schools, to the post. Mr. Pranatartihara Ayyar is reported to know a sufficient number of languages, viz., Tamil, Telugu and Sanskrit and also some Malayalam and would therefore seem to be suitable for the post. He would however be completing sixty years of age next month and the question arises whether he is likely to possess the physical energy required for the satisfactory performance of the duties of the office. On this point Dr. Bourne's

D.O. at page 17 of the notes to G.O. No. 646 R., dated the 17th December 1907, which gives an estimate of the work devolving on the Registrar and the number of hours a day that would be taken up in that work is illuminating. It will appear therefrom that the duties are expected to occupy from one to two hours a day and much less if the Registrar is a clever linguist but much more if he is otherwise. A pensioner of Mr. Pranatartihara Ayyar's age will therefore be able to attend to it.

It may be observed in this connection that the first Registrar under the arrangements sanctioned in G.O.No.317, Educational, dated the 9th June 1884, viz., Diwan Bahadur V. Krishnama Achariyar, was appointed to the post while he was a pensioner, in his fifty-<sup>first</sup>~~th~~ year and continued in that office till he was seventy-four. The late Rao Bahadur Ranga Achariyar also was allowed to continue in the post after his retirement in 1914 at the age of 58. - G.O No 816 Edl, dated the 11th July 1914.

3. In the above circumstances the Director's proposal to appoint Rao Bahadur A.C. Pranatartihara Ayyar seems to be unobjectionable and may be approved. The re-appointment of an officer after superannuation or retiring pension is governed by articles 520 and 521 of the Civil Service Regulations and if it is decided to approve the proposal the case may go to the Financial (Pension) Department u.o. for remarks.
