No. 1. Miss Harding was a teacher in my school for 15 months. She passed her first years examination in Hindi with credit. She had charge of the sewing and fancy work besides the regular studies and the girls made excellent progress under her instruction. Not only in her regular studies was ^{she} the faithful but in times of special stress she was most helpful and obliging. Her deficient hearing is not the obstacle one might suppose. She is leaving us because of ill health.

2. All Saints' College, Naini Tal.

Miss Harding has been in charge of our Technical students during the last three years. She has taught successfully the following subjects:- Dressmaking (on scientific principles) Plain Needlework, Cooking, Typewriting & Shorthand.

Miss Harding herself is very clever in all kind of needlework. The examiners in Needlework reported last year:-

"The articles worked were not ^{only} useful but extremely dainty and looked fresh and clean, we were much struck with the neatness and fine sewing".

Miss Harding is leaving as we are reorganising the departments. I am sorry we are unable to retain her services.

Auckland House - Simla.

Miss Harding has held a temporary post in Auckland House School during the absence of one of the staff on furlough, throughout the year 1912. She has taught needlework almost throughout the school and scientific cutting out to the bigger girls. The girls have been much interested in their work and have a satisfactory grasp of what they have been taught.

Miss Harding has also taught Cooking & Domestic Economy in the upper part of the school. Her work throughout has been thorough.

Miss Harding leaves me because two of the staff who have been away on furlough are returning.

I shall be glad to answer any further questions about Miss Harding's work. S.M.T.

Dear Sir,

I am writing to ask if there is a vacancy in any of the Girls Schools under your authority for a Mistress or lecturer of Domestic subjects. If so, I beg to offer my services.

I am English - age 33 and a member of the Church of England.

I hold the certificate of the City & Guilds & London for Dressmaking. The Diploma of the Edinburgh School of Domestic Economy (granted by the Scotch Education Department) for Needlework, dressmaking & millinery. I have studied embroidery and design at the Edinburgh School of Art. I have made a special study of Hygiene and have passed part of the examination for the certificate of the Royal Sanitary Institute. I left England before I could sit for the other part.

I am thoroughly up-to-date in all my subjects. I returned to India last December after an eighteen months stay in England - part of the time I spent in study.

I have already worked about eight years in India. My services have been as follows:-

Fifteen months at the M.E. Mission High School, Mozuffarpur.

Three years at All Saints College - Naini Tal - teaching domestic science.

Two years as Principal of the Mohilla Shilpasram, Calcutta an industrial home for Hindu widows.

One year at Auckland House School - Simla - teaching Domestic Science.

I enclose copies of testimonials received - also a letter from the Lord Bishop of Madras.

Trusting you may have a vacancy I am capable of filling.

I am dear Sir,

Very faithfully yours,

(Miss) C.M. Harding.

Miss Harding, teacher of Needlework & Domestic Economy in the Auckland House High School, Simla, has been known to me for a little over a year. I have had opportunities of inspecting her work and consider she is a ~~very~~ capable instructor in these subjects. The Principal of the schools speaks highly of her work and attention to duties. She is able to instruct in the drafting and cutting out of garments and her work has been characterised by success and thoroughness.

Miss C.M. Harding worked as the Principal of the Mohilla Shilpasaram for two years to the entire satisfaction of the members of the Executive Committee. The members of the Committee were sorry to dispense with her services but were obliged to do so as the new arrangements of the school from the present year, required some curtailment of expenses.

Calcutta - April 17 - '15

Miss Harding was for several years the Lady Principal of the Hindu Widows' Technical School in Calcutta. She thoroughly understands all branches of needlework and embroidery and has besides some knowledge of working a technical industry such as weaving. In addition to this, she has a knowledge of Domestic Science.

Her discipline at the Hindu Shilpasaram was decidedly good and she had there a particularly difficult task.

She was not allowed a sufficiently free hand in the working of the institution, but the work that was turned out was good in quality and design.

Miss Harding has a defective hearing, but I do not think it seriously interferes with her teaching.

Inspectress of Schools,
Presidency & Burdwan Divisions.
