To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Home (Education)

Through the Accountant General, Madras.

Sir,

The Inspector of Girls' Schools, Southern Circle reports that the present staff of four teachers on Rs 14, 12, 10 and 10 in the Government Girls' School at Kallianpur, South Canara District, which was sanctioned in 1905 when it had only standards from Infant to IV is inadequate to meet the present requirements of the school which imparts instruction to 114 students distributed among standards

x standards infant to VI as noted in the margin and proposes the entertainment of an additional teacher on Rs 20 per mensem. She adds that the present headmistress who has passed the late Lower Secondary examination and holds a trained teachers' certificate has helped in the development of the school by opening the fifth and sixth standards and therefore deserves encouragement. She is of opinion that this teacher should be promoted to the new post on Rs 20/- that the other teachers should be given gradual promotion and that a new teacher should be appointed as the last assistant on Rs 10/-. The Inspectress's proposal commends itself to me in as much as Rule 51 of the Madras Educational Rules requires an additional teacher and as Rs 20/- is not too much for a trained higher elementary school-mistress. I have the honour accordingly to request that Government will be pleased to sanction the entertainment of an additional teacher on Rs 20/- per mensem temporarily for a period of one year from 1st October 1917.

The extra cost amounting to Rs 100/- during the five months of the current year can be met from the anticipated savings under salaries of teachers in Government Girls' Schools in the current year's budget and I beg to request that the necessary provision may be included in the next year's budget estimates.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

C. V. S. Srinivasan

retrospective effect should be given to the sanction. The draft order on the other hand states that the sanction should take effect from the date of employment, ^{but seeing that the intention is to give a promotion to the existing staff, it appears that the date may be more clearly specified & ~~the order may be~~} ~~the order may be~~ The draft order therefore seems to require some amendment. Submitted that the Home (Education) Department may be requested to state that the sanction will, following the usual practice, take effect from the date of the order. The order may otherwise be accepted.

Reply No additional teacher has yet been entertained in the school.
Sanction may therefore have effect from the date of the order or from the date of entertainment: The latter is preferred.
