HOME DEPARTMENT (EDUCATION).

G.O. No. 1442, 16th November 1917

University regulations

Sanctioning certain alterations in the — relating to the Intermediate courses and examination.

READ—the following paper :—

Letter—from FRANCIS DEWSBURY, Esq., B.A., LL.B., Registrar, University of Madras.

To—the Secretary to Government, Home (Education) Department.

Dated—Senate House, the 31st October 1917.

No.—7875.

I have the honour, by direction of the Syndicate, to submit for the sanction of Government under section 25 (1) of the Indian Universities Act, 1904, the following alterations in the regulations adopted by the Senate at its meeting held on the 19th October 1917 :—

(i) That in Regulation 178 under "Part I-A English Language and Literature," sub-paragraph (2) in the last sentence, the words "immediately after the publication of the results of the Matriculation Examination" be deleted.

(ii) That in Regulation 179, the word "Tuesday" be substituted for the word "Thursday".

In regard to (i) I am to explain that the provision that "the books which are not to be studied in detail shall be prescribed every year immediately after the publication of the results of the Matriculation Examination" is impossible of observance as these books must be prescribed sufficiently early to permit of their being available for purchase by students at the commencement of the academical year: i.e., some six months earlier than the publication in June of the results of the Matriculation Examination each year.

In regard to proposed alteration (ii) I am to explain that when the regulations were originally drafted and submitted to Government there were four optional groups, each containing three subjects, for the Intermediate course, in which the examinations were held simultaneously: subsequently Groups (iii) and (iv) were combined into one Group (iii) with five subjects and the examination in the subjects of the combined group consequently takes two days longer. It has therefore become necessary to commence the examination on the Tuesday instead of on the Thursday preceding Holy week when the fourth Monday in March falls in the week preceding Easter day.

Order—No. 1442, Home (Education), dated the 16th November 1917.

Under section 25 (1) of the Indian Universities Act, 1904, the Government sanction the alterations in the University Regulations proposed in the Registrar's letter read above.
