To—the Secretary to Government, Home (Education) Department.

Dated—the 6th November 1917.

No.—216-C.L.

I have the honour to invite attention to paragraph 3 of my letter No. 585, dated 3rd November 1916, and to submit herewith, for the favourable consideration of Government, an application in the prescribed form * for the exemption from the operation of article 1 of the Public Service Notification of S. Shadagopal Nayudu and P. S. Govindarajulu Nayudu, second and third attendants in the Connemara Public Library, for permanent employment as first and second attendants, respectively.

2. I have the honour to request that, for the reasons set out in my previous letter and the present application, Government will be pleased to sanction the exemption sought for.

Order—No. 1456, Home (Education), dated 17th November 1917.

In the circumstances stated in his letter No. 585, dated the 3rd November 1916, the Government approve the proposal of the Principal Librarian, Connemara Public Library, to exclude the posts of the first and the second attendants in the Library from the operation of article 1 of the Public Service Notification.

NOTIFICATION

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O. No. 1456, HOME (EDUCATION),
DATED THE 17TH NOVEMBER 1917

[SUBJECT.—Exemption from examination rules.]

From the Principal Librarian, Connemara Public Library, dated 6th November 1917, No. 216 C.L.

In connexion with the proposals for the general revision of the Public Service and Special Test notifications, Mr. Henderson suggested that the posts of the first and the second * attendants in the Connemara Public Library might be excluded from the operation of article 1 of the Public Service Notification, or if that were inexpedient, the second post at least might be so excluded and that the Principal Librarian might be empowered to exempt unpassed candidates for the first attendant's post in respect of other than permanent vacancies. The reasons for the proposal are to be found in Mr. Henderson's letter on pages 5 and 6 of G.O. No. 1021, Home (Education), dated 6th August 1917. As it was not deemed advisable to mix up individual proposals of this kind with the general issues raised and disposed of in the above Government order, no orders were passed on the suggestion—vide clause (e) of the office-note on page 4 of the notes to the Government order.

2. The Principal Librarian now confines his proposal only to the present incumbents of the posts alluded to in paragraph 1 ante. For the reasons already urged by that officer and with a view to avoid further reference to Government on the subject, it may perhaps be desirable to exclude the posts in question from the operation of article 1 of the Public Service Notification—please see G.O. No. 268, Educational, dated the 19th May 1910, and No. 31, Educational, dated the 19th January 1911, in which the two taxidermists in the museum and the head keeper of the marine aquarium were under similar circumstances so excluded. Subject to orders a draft order is submitted.
