G.O. No. 194, Educational, dated the 23rd February 1916.

ABSTRACT.—Sanctioning the proposal of the Director of Public Instruction to employ additional teachers in certain Government elementary schools in the Ganjam district.

II

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. J. H. STONE, M.A., F.R.H.S., C.I.E., Director of Public Instruction.

To—the Secretary to Government, Home (Education) Department (through the Accountant-General).

Dated—the 26th October 1917.

No.—R.O.C. 7405.

The Agent to the Governor in Ganjam reports that since the employment of an additional teacher on Rs. 10 per mensem in the Government elementary school for boys at Gazilabadi was sanctioned in G.O. No. 194, Educational, dated 23rd February 1916, the strength and average attendance of the school have increased to 75 and 60 respectively (vide particulars noted on the margin) and recommends the entertainment of another assistant in addition to the existing two teachers on Rs. 12 and 10. The Agent's recommendation is in accordance with rule 81 of the Madras Educational Rules and has the support of the Inspecting officers. In these circumstances, I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to sanction the employment from 1st March 1918 of an additional teacher on Rs. 10 per mensem in the school and to advise the Accountant-General to include the necessary provision for his pay in the budget estimate for the next year.

III

Endorsement of the Accountant-General, No. Ganj. 3-13050, dated 1st/2nd November 1917.

Forwarded.

2. There is no audit objection to the proposal being sanctioned by Government.

3. The necessary provision will be included in the budget estimate for 1918-19 on receipt of orders of Government in the Financial Department to that effect.

H. BHIMASENA RAO,
Deputy Accountant-General.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b) For rules regarding printing of notes, see rule 315 of the office Manual.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencee concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right-hand side, only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
