G.O. No. 1498, 26th November 1917

University regulations

Sanctioning certain temporary regulation extending the period within which undergraduates who join the Indian Defence Force should appear for the B.A. (Honours).

READ—the following paper :—

Letter—from F. DEWSBURY, Esq., B.A., LL.B., Registrar, University of Madras.

To—the Secretary to Government, Home (Education) Department.

Dated—Senate House, the 26th October 1917.

No.—7776.

I have the honour, by direction of the Syndicate, to submit for the sanction of Government, under Section 25 (1) of the Indian Universities Act, 1904, the following temporary regulation adopted by the Senate at its meeting held on 19th October 1917, relating to concessions that should be granted to undergraduates, who join the Indian Defence Force :—

“ That the following temporary regulation be adopted :

In the case of B.A. (Honours) students, who have enlisted in the Indian Defence Force, the period of time within which they shall appear for the final examination in Honours be extended to the end of the fifth year after passing the Intermediate examination.”

According to Regulation 202, a candidate for the B.A. (Honours) Degree shall appear for the final examination in Honours not later than the fourth year after he has passed the Intermediate examination. The temporary regulation now adopted relaxes the provisions of Regulation 202 in the case of students enlisting in the Indian Defence Force who are candidates for the Honours Degree by providing for an extension of the time fixed for passing the examination by one year.

Order—No. 1498, Home (Education), dated 26th November 1917.

Under section 25 (1) of the Indian Universities Act, 1904, the Government sanction the temporary regulation proposed in the Registrar's letter read above.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b¹) For rules regarding printing of notes, see rule 315 of the office Manual.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
