1.

Chalapuram,

6th September 1917.

Mr. K. P. Unnikannan Menon was my clerk for three years (1914 to 1916.) when I was Government Pleader, Calicut.

He has a fairly good practical knowledge of Civil Procedure and of practice in courts. Owing to want of the prescribed educational qualification, he is unable to appear for the Civil Judicial Test which he is anxious to pass to qualify him for a pleader's sanad in the Cochin State.

He has in my opinion a fairly good chance of success in the examination if he is allowed to appear, and I have great pleasure to recommend that his application for exemption from the necessary educational qualification may be favourably considered.

His education while at school appears to have been neglected.

2.

Chalapuram,

7th September 1917.

I have known Mr. K. P. Unnikannan Menon as a clerk under Mr. T. M. Appu Nedungadi, late Public Prosecutor, S. Malabar, and latterly under Mr. A. V. Balakrishna Menon High Court Vakil, Calicut. I am glad to be able to certify to his knowledge of the Civil Rules of Practice and Civil Procedures— So far as they are required for court routine work. He wishes to appear for the Civil Judicial Test and I have no doubt that if he is granted an exemption from the Examination qualification required for appearing for the said test, he will prove himself worthy of the indulgence.

3.

Chalapuram

8th September 1917.

I have known Mr. K. P. Unnikanna Menon for several years. He was for some time a clerk under my brother Dr. T. C. K. Kurup, Barrister-at-law practicing at Madras.

He belongs to a very respectable family, and I believe bears excellent character.

Recently he has had occasion to instruct me in certain cases, and by the manner in which he did his work in such connexion I am happy to be able to say that he is well able to handle facts.

I can also say that he has a fair knowledge of Civil Rules of Practice and procedure.

Barrister-At Law.

4.

Chalapuram,

10th September 1917.

Mr. K. P. Unni Kanna Menon is my clerk. Before coming to me, he was the clerk of the late Government Pleader Mr. T. M. Appu Nedungadi and subsequently, a clerk in the Nedungadi Bank, Ltd., Calicut. During the time he was under me, I had occasion to know him very closely and I have no hesitation in certifying that he has a sound knowledge of legal work and procedure. He possesses also a fairly good knowledge of English.

He desires to appear for the Civil Judicial Test in order to qualify himself to practise in the Cochin courts. Since he has not got the minimum educational qualification necessary to entitle him to sit for the examination he is desirous of getting an exemption from the necessary educational qualification. I have no doubt that if he is allowed a chance of appearing for and passing the examination, he will prove himself an efficient member of the Cochin Bar. His conduct throughout has been quite satisfactory.

High Court Vakil,

Petitioner

a private individual, applied for the permission of Govt. to appear for the Civil Judicial test and view to obtaining a pleader's license in the Madras State. The letter of Malabar through whom the application is subd. recommended the concession. But it is doubtful whether Govt. would consider this sufficient. In the absence of the recommendation of the Deans of Madras and of the Resident in Tel., Govt. are not in a position to know whether the candidate is otherwise a fit person to be admitted to the Madras Courts as a pleader and whether the special permission, if granted, will be in the interests of the Madras ^{Bar} ~~Bar~~.
