Please see the papers at slip (S). Arrangements are already being made by the litigants themselves for the maintenance of the library at Tanjore. These have generally been approved by the Government and the Collector of Tanjore has been requested to report to Government after details have been settled and a definite scheme for the management of the library has been formulated. The future of the library depends on the success of that scheme.

2. The following draft answer is suggested:—

(a) No.

(b) The Government understand that a scheme for the maintenance of the Tanjore Palace Library is now under the consideration of the litigants to the Tanjore Palace Estate. ~~The Government are not~~ ~~entitled to interfere with the decision of the litigants~~ ~~in this matter~~. Their decision is being awaited.
