No information is available regarding the amount of grants and subsidies given to schools for Panchamas. The other particulars regarding these schools are contained in Vol. II of the Reports on Public Instruction to which the attention of the Additional Member may be drawn.

2. It is not clear which classes are meant by the term "Depressed classes". Unless the Additional Member specifies the classes in respect of whom information is sought for, it may not be possible to comply with his request.

3. The remarks of the D.P.I. may be invited as the following draft answer is submitted for approval:—

6.11.17
" All the available particulars
" are given in Vol. II of the " annual reports on Public Instruction
" to which the Honble Member
" is referred."

NOTES.

No 227 of 11.17

I have no more information in the file & it would take long time to get it. Perhaps the Member may be told that the education of depressed classes is better now fully in than in previous reports in the Annual Report that you have published.
