(J)

In G.O. no 722 dated the 31st May 1917 the Govt. have decided to open for the present an engineering school at Vizagapatam for the training of lower subordinates. Reference is however, made to the necessity for the establishment of an engineering college in the north in the d.O. issued to the Director in August 1917 in connection with the formulation of definite educational schemes for inclusion in the budget estimates of future years - please see para. 2 of D.O. no 2593A-1 dated the 24th August 1917. It may probably be necessary to raise the school the newly opened at Vizag into the status of a college.

We answer for beyond the question.

I should say that there is not at present any question of establishing an engineering course in the Indian Ocean but (that) we have decided to establish an Engineering School at Riga at the time of the standard of the Intermediate class in the College of Engineering.
