The Hon'ble Mr. K. Rama Ayyangar.

Home (Education) department.

101. Will the Government be pleased to issue orders that students who are majors and who are in the intermediate and higher classes may ordinarily attend political meetings except when the Principal of the College specifically prohibits students from attending any lecture about which he duly publishes notice to such students?

The following draft was submitted for approval: -
"The Govt. see no sufficient reason for prohibiting the students from attending political meetings."

In order.

NOTES.

Home (Education) Dept

The Additional Member apparently desires a modification of the orders in fo. no. 559 Home (Edn) dated the 1st May 1917. It has been decided in Council (on 4.10.17) that these orders are not to be modified. It may be noted in this connection that notices of resolutions to be moved at the ensuing meeting of the Legislative Council have been received in the subject of the withdrawal of the above orders. A deputation is also to wait on His Excellency on the 7th inst.
