To

The Home (Education) Department. with Q. no. 64

Home (Education) Department.

(P) Q.64. a. Is it a fact that subsequent to the issue of Government Order No.559, Home (Education) department, dated 1st May 1917 the Government summoned a conference of certain Principals of Colleges and Head Masters of high schools and consulted them about the working of the above Government Order?

b. Is it a fact that most, if not all, of the Principals and Head Masters so consulted expressed themselves against the above Government Order and stated that they could not give effect thereto ?

c. Will the Government be pleased to lay on the table a statement showing the names of the Principals and Head Masters who took part in that conference and the opinions expressed by them?

d. Will the Government be pleased to state what orders if any, have been passed on the proceedings of that conference?

e. Will the Government be pleased to lay on the table all the papers relating to that subject?

A copy of ~~the~~ the proceedings of the conference referred to is put up and flagged (P) X The conference was a private one. All the members thereof came from Colleges and no headmasters of high schools attended the meeting. As regards the opinions of the College Principals in regard to ~~the~~ f.o. no. 559 dated the 180 mag 1917 and its working, attention is solicited to para. 5 of the proceedings (page 576). No orders were issued on this point. The Director has only been asked to report the requirements of the colleges in regard to the provision of playgrounds, hostel accommodation etc. —

It is a consideration whether the statement question b. should not be answered. It is of course no time but most of the principals expressed themselves against "the f.o." although a few may dwell on the difficulty of enforcing it.

For orders whether a draft answer on page 3 and may be amplified as suggested by the D.D. and the ~~and~~ following added to it:

"It is not correct that most of the Principals expressed themselves
"against the order."

I do not think that the above addition improves the answer.

The draft already put up is
