The Honourable Mr. B. Venkatapati Raju.

Home (Education) Department.

Question 82. Will the Government be pleased to allow the unpassed candidates who joined the Government service before the introduction of Secondary School-Leaving Certificate scheme to appear for the said examination as private candidates as is being done in the Educational Department.

Home Department, (Education).

The allusion at "A" above is apparently to the special examination under the Secondary School-Leaving Certificate Board for the benefit of teachers who have failed in the Matriculation or the Upper Secondary Examination and are desirous of undergoing training of the secondary grade - please see G.Os No. 820, Educational, dated the 30th July 1915 and No. 934, Home (Education), dated the 2nd September 1916. The examination as its name implies is thrown open only to bona fide teachers.

2. What the Additional Member wants is that the concession granted to teachers should also be extended to unpassed candidates in Government service and that they may be permitted to appear, as private candidates, for the public examination at the end of the Secondary School-leaving ~~Wwww~~ certificate course. The acceptance of the suggestion is diametrically opposed to the spirit underlying the S.S.L.C. scheme, the value of which lies not so much in that a boy has passed a certain test but that he has gone through a definite course of study in a recognised school and that during the period of his stay at such a school he has conducted himself in a satisfactory manner. The certificate is accordingly meant to be a record of the last three years of a pupil's career in a secondary school in regard to progress, attainments, character and conduct, besides being a record of the result of the public examination. On this ground the Department have also been chary of granting any exemption from the rules regarding attendance certificates - vide the papers disposed of in G.O.No.693, Educational, dated the 2nd December 1910.

3. The case of bona fide teachers who failed in the Matriculation or Upper Secondary Examinations was considered to be special as ^{it} ~~these cases~~ was hard and the restriction in regard to attendance at a recognised school had to be removed ^{in their cases} ~~with~~ with a view to bring into existence a sufficient supply of

I agree with the conclusion reached but would much not the students' attention to the General Examination opened to me just as failed in the matriculation examination and must therefore have completed a school course. The reason I think for confining the subjects to teachers is that there are found for giving them special consideration in regard extending to the failed individuals

The agreement would have to be on other than educational lines.
