Home (Education) Department.

Q.161. Will the Government be pleased to state if they have any intention of improving in the near future the salary of teachers imparting primary education in order to improve its quality?

Respectfully answered by the Minister for Education, Government of Madras, on 14th March 1947.

2. Perhaps the following answer may be given to the Hon. Member:

Home Education Dept.

In submitting proposals for the abrogation of the Imperial recurring grant of 4 lakhs the Director has suggested the ~~cost~~ enhancement of the minimum pay of teachers in boys' and girls' schools under public management to Rs 11 and Rs 12 respectively and the payment of enhanced teaching grants to aided elementary schools so as to enable the management to raise the salaries of the teachers employed ^{under} them correspondingly. The principle involved in this proposal has been accepted ^{by} ~~the Director~~ ^{suggested} by the Director. ~~He has proposed~~ ^{he has} the above increases, ^{leaving alone} ~~without considering~~ the question of g.c.a which in his opinion, should not be taken into account for the present. The Financial Dept. however, suggest that the minimum pay in all cases should be fixed at Rs. 12, that g.c.a should be ^{abolished} ~~simultaneously~~ the teachers who are now in receipt of a higher salary than Rs. 12 (including g.c.a) being granted a personal allowance of the excess over Rs. 12 now drawn by them. The ^{point} ~~has~~ has been referred to L.M. for remarks.

2. Perhaps the following answer may be given to the Additional Member.
