post. In the meantime, the Secretary of State sanctioned the creation of the appointment and stated that he would take steps for the recruitment of an officer for the post in the United Kingdom. Subsequently, however, the India Office ~~advised~~ that the efforts made to find a suitable candidate had proved unsuccessful and that the Board of Education had advised that recruitment would have to be postponed until the conclusion of the war. The post is therefore ~~now~~ vacant.

2. As the Officer in charge of the Department of Industries required expert assistance in the supervision and control of industrial schools the Government have temporarily appointed Mr. W. Pyrie, Instructor in Manual Training in the Educational Department, as Inspector of Industrial Schools without prejudice to his duties as Manual Training Instructor. He is granted an allowance of Rs.150 a month for the additional work entrusted to him. The number of industrial schools to be inspected is only 41 and there is at present no immediate need to appoint a full time officer.

Home (Education) Department.

In Letter No.3852, Revenue, dated the 30th December 1912, this Government addressed the Govt. of India for sanction to the creation of a post of Inspector of Industrial Schools on a salary of Rs.600 per mensem and requested that the Secretary of State might be moved to recruit a suitable candidate for the post. In his Despatch No.110, Revenue, dated the 10th October 1913, the Secretary of State sanctioned the creation of the appointment and stated that he would take steps for the recruitment of an officer for the post in the United Kingdom. Subsequently, however, the India Office ~~intimated~~ ^{intimated} that the efforts made to find a suitable candidate had proved unsuccessful and that the Board of Education had advised that recruitment would have to be postponed until the conclusion of the war. The post is therefore ~~vacant~~ ^{still} vacant.

2. As the Officer in charge of the Department of Industries required expert assistance in the supervision and control of industrial schools, the Government have temporarily appointed Mr. W. Fyfe, Instructor in Manual Training, in the Educational Department, as Inspector of Industrial Schools without prejudice to his duties as Manual Training Instructor. He is granted an allowance of Rs.150 a month for the additional work entrusted to him. The number of industrial schools to be inspected is only 41 and there is at present no immediate need to appoint a full time officer.

Alert reply as follows:-

The appointment has not yet been made as no suitable Candidate is forthcoming. Mr. Fyfe, the Instructor in Manual Training in the Education Dept., is inspecting industrial schools in addition to his own duties, and receiving an allowance for this extra work. The number of industrial schools to be inspected is not such as to render the appointment of a full time officer an urgent matter.
