To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

HOME (EDUCATION) Department.

Sir,

THROUGH THE ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for the employment from 1st July 1918 of an additional assistant on Rs.30-1-35 per mensem in the Government Secondary school, Bhadrachalam.

2. Excluding the Drawing master, the Gymnastic Instructor, the Telugu Pandit and the Ureu

Munshi

Munshi the staff consists of a headmaster and seven assistants who have to look after the eight classes in the school (Infant to Form III) with a total strength of 145 as detailed on the margin. Further there being no clerical appointment on the establishment the clerical work has to be distributed among the members of the staff. The Headmaster who is thus burdened with clerical as well as teaching work finds little time for supervision. To afford relief to him and to some of the senior assistants, the Inspector of schools, First Circle, has proposed the employment of an additional assistant and the Government Agent, Godavari, recommends the proposal.

The additional post, if sanctioned, will only make up for the full complement of staff required under Rule 28 of the Madras Educational Rules viz., a teacher for every class besides the Headmaster and I have delayed asking for it so long as the institution was in the experimental stage. Now that its permanent retention as a secondary one has been sanctioned in G.O. No. 469 Educational, dated 1st May 1916, I support the Agent's recommendation with regard to the employment of an additional assistant on Rs. 30-1-35 but would suggest his entertainment from the beginning of the next school year i.e. from 1st July 1918.

3. I beg to request also that the cost of the proposal amounting to Rs. 240 during 1918-19 may be included in the budget estimates of that year.

4. A statement showing the sanctioned scale of staff is appended.

A teacher for every class besides the Headmaster, is absolutely essential under rule 28 of the Madras Educational Rules. I am, therefore, for 1215 Rs. 240 p.m.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

R. A. Anur

for Director of Public Instruction.
