G.O. No. 1655, 22nd December 1917

Madras Educational Rules

Directing the publication in the Fort St. George Gazette of a notification sanctioning certain alterations in rule 115 of the —.

READ—the following paper :—

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. J. H. STONE, M.A., F.R.H.S., C.I.E., Director of Public Instruction.

To—the Secretary to Government, Home (Education) Department.

Dated—Madras, the 14th December 1917.

No.—C. 10234.

I have the honour to address Government suggesting the omission of certain words from the last paragraph of rule 115 of the Madras Educational Rules with reference to clause (2) of article 1 of the Public Service Notification. I refer to the words 'and whose holders are consequently eligible for Government service.' Their omission is necessary in consequence of the deletion of the words 'other than shorthand and typewriting' carried out by G.O. No. 1179, Educational, dated 10th December 1913, from clause 2 of article 1 of the Public Service Notifications issued subsequent to the year 1913. In this connection I would state that the reasons for the inclusion of shorthand and typewriting in the optional subjects of the Secondary School Leaving Certificate scheme for purposes of the Government service cannot be applied with equal force to Secondary School Leaving Certificate holders applying for admission into the Secondary Training class and I consider that in the selection of Secondary School Leaving Certificate holders for secondary training preference should be given to those who show sufficient knowledge in two of the optional subjects other than shorthand and typewriting. I therefore suggest that the words 'and whose holders are consequently eligible for Government service' may be deleted from the rule in question.

I submit herewith the necessary notification in duplicate for favour of approval and publication in the Fort St. George Gazette.
