READ—the following paper:—

Letter—from F. DEWSBURY, Esq., B.A., LL.B., Registrar, University of Madras.
To—the Secretary to Government, Home (Education) Department.
Dated—Senate House, the 8th February 1917.
No.—903.

I have the honour, by direction of the Syndicate, to submit for the sanction of Government the enclosed Transitory Regulation adopted by the Senate at its Extraordinary Meeting held on the 26th January 1917.

The Transitory Regulation explains itself. I may, however, state for the information of Government, that there are over seventy candidates who were prevented by the cyclone of the night of the 22nd November last from attending the convocation held on the 23rd idem, and some of them are candidates for ensuing higher examinations open to graduates of the University. The proposed Transitory Regulation is intended to remove such disabilities as they will otherwise labour under by the strict application of the existing regulations.

The Transitory Regulation was, on the recommendation of the Syndicate, adopted by the Senate unanimously. Early orders thereon are requested.
