Ordinary SERIES.

G.O. No. 803.

DATED 15-6-1917.

[Despatch Abstract.]

2

1. Five officers of the Provincial Educational Service were granted personal allowances, three of these to take effect from 1st January 1917 and two others from 1st February, myself being included in the earlier batch.

2. These allowances which are compensatory were as I understand granted to these officers either because they did not owing to accidents of service get on very well in spite of their length of service or were not likely on account of their age to benefit under the recommendations of the Public Service Commission.

Like allowances of this kind, they are either wholly or partly extinguished whenever these officers are promoted to higher grades and mine was thus reduced from Rs. 65 to Rs. 15 from 10th January 1917 so that I enjoyed its full benefit for 9 days.

4. I am, I believe, the oldest member of the Provincial Educational Service and of those at least to whom the personal allowance has been given should in the usual course be the earliest to retire. It is therefore painful that I alone lose benefit of the promotion notified in the Port Saint George Gazette dated 23rd May 1917 while the others do not. I was granted the Personal reason of ~~its being~~ granted a month earlier.

7. Although these two personal advances were available even before the 1st ~~January~~ ^{25 49} of January and could have been granted with effect from the same date in the original course they were sanctioned with effect from 1st ~~January~~ ^{25 49} probably because

It was uncertain whether Mr. Klaja Khan would return from the commencement of the Christmas Holidays or at the end, in which case one of the last two officers would have been in the same predicament as myself.

8. It would appear from Art. 61 which says "Unless in any case it is specially ordered otherwise ~~by the Government~~ by the Government sanctioning it, a personal allowance should be reduced by any amount by which the recipient's pay or salary may be increased, and should cease as soon as his pay or salary is increased by an amount equal to his personal allowance, that the Government can order that my personal allowance shall not be liable to reduction on account of my promotion or can so modify that previous order that my allowance takes effect from a date later than the date of my promotion."

I have been thinking of you very much lately and wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy. I have been very busy lately but I will try to write to you more often.

The following statement shows in one view the names of the officers of the Provincial drawn by each:

5. M.R.Ry. L.A. Ganapati Ayyar	6th grade permanent (Rs.350)	23-12-16	65	1-2-17

2. The conditions under which the personal allowances are held are set out in G.O.No.1368, Home (Education), dated the 13th December 1916.
 The allowances are liable to reduction under Article 61 of the Civil Service Regulations on a increase of pay or salary as defined in Article of the Civil Service Regulations. The only per-

Mr. B. Raghavendra Rao. Attention is however solicited to the notes and orders in G.O.No.383, Educational, dated the 5th April 1916, in regard to the continuance of the personal allowance granted to Mr. M. Hunter of the Indian Educational Service. It appears open to Government to permit Mr. B. Raghavendra Rao to retain his personal allowance without reduction even after his sub protem promotion to the fourth grade and to rule that the allowance will be liable to reduction when he receives promotion to the third or higher grades. To avoid complication of this kind, it appears preferable to alter the date of grant of the allowance from the 1st January to the 1st February 1917. Such a concession was shown in the case of Mr. Ramaswami Ayyangar - vide Director's letter in G.O. No. 291, Home (Education), dated the 2nd March 1917. As, however, under G.O.No.107, Home (Education), dated the 16th May 1917, he received sub protem promotion to the fifth grade with effect from the 23rd December 1916, the concession has not proved of use to him.

There seems to be real hardship. We may adopt the latter alternative. Before further proceeding with the matter we may consult the D.P. no.

These allowances were given to indemnify people who had little or no chance of benefiting by any action taken on the recommendations of the Public Service Commission if they are to be cut down ^{or ultimately withdrawn} or given for transition from grade to grade of the P.S. it appears to me that they will not have that effect. I would say that in every case where this occurs there will be a grievance and that Rogers in the P.S. is sentimentally rather than really exceptional. I would therefore prefer that these allowances should be exempted from the C.S.R. Art 61 at a rate up to the third grade (No 500) if that cannot be done however I have no objection to B.R.'s ~~provision~~ allowance being put under Art 61. i. of the act after his provision

Home Education Department

It does not seem necessary to consider ~~to~~ at present the general question raised by the Director at 'A' in his note on page 6 supra. It may be sufficient to post-date the allowance in the case of Mr. Raghavendra Rao. The Director has no objection to this, ~~has however~~ and suggests that the allowance may take effect from the 11th January 1917. It appears however, desirable that the allowance should have effect from the beginning of a month, say, the 1st February in the present case.
