OFFICE NOTE.

SUBJECT. The bond executed by a Victoria
Technical Institute Scholar

From the Officer in Charge of the Dep^{ts} of Industries
No. R.O.C 109 of 2.6.17

Register No. 2197

- The bond executed by N. Sundararajan to whom one of the Scholarships at the Bombay Technical Institute was awarded in G.O. 372 of 16.3.17, is in order and may be forwarded to the
- A Curator, Madras Record Office (of G.O. 1380 of 7.12.14 and para 1 of G.O. 641 of 10.6.16)
- B. 2. In G.O. no 372 of 16.3.17 the Scholar was granted a monthly Scholarship of Rs 30 for the full course of four years. He has already completed one year's course and claims the scholarship amount due to him during that period. Submitted this may be sanctioned as the bond he has now executed is for the full four years' course. For a precedent please see E.V. Venkataramana
- M Aygar's case in G.O. 641-42 of 10.6.16.
3. He claims further railway fare at his rate
- G Sanctioned in G.O. 918 of 20.8.15 together with the cost of excess luggage actually borne by him.

p. 4 of G.O. 641-42 5/10/17

In the case of Venkataramana Bygar the railway fare was allowed but the claim for ~~excess~~ luggage charges was not on the ground that it was not likely that he would be able to produce any satisfactory vouchers in support of ~~the~~ the luggage charges. It is therefore for consideration whether for the same reason travelling allowance according to the sanctioned rates ~~might~~ may be paid but exclusive of charges for luggage may be paid in the present case also.

A draft order and draft letter to Bombay are submitted below for approval.

We may sanction ~~the~~ as above following the precedent

I should like to see G.O. 302 of 1916 about the necessity toward the scholarship amount in arrears

G.O. No. 302 of 1916, dated the 21st March 1916, is submitted - Slip 2. Attention is solicited to the notes on pages 5 & 6 of notes to the G.O.

G0302 is scarcely a precedent. The arrears was sanctioned to avoid affronting the District Board.

On principle I do not see why arrears should be sanctioned. Without any hope of the scholarship the student has attended the Institute. A lump sum now serves no good.

As the student however is now on leave here, there is no objection to sanction the railway fare mm

It is respectfully submitted that, if arrears are not to be paid, the scholarship ~~under the~~ ^{under the} ~~scholarship~~ ^{scholarship} is payable only for a period of three years and not for four as stated in para 1 of form 372 Ed of the 16th March 1917. It is for consideration whether a revised band providing for the payment of the scholarship only for three years may now be called for.
