Most Honoured Sir,

I beg to request the Government to be so kind as to exempt me from the "General Educational qualifications" so that I may be entertained in the regular clerical line under Government and that I may thus be eligible to appear for the special test examinations, such as Account & Revenue tests.

My request is made in the following circumstances:- I was first a typist on Rs.29/- (25-1-35) in the Court's office, when my services were asked for from the Court of wards by Mr. de la Hey, as clerk at Newington, and my services were accordingly lent by the Court from 12th December 1913 on a pay of Rs.40/- per mensem. On return from Home of Mr. Morrison in October 1914, I was confirmed in my appointment at Newington on Rs.40-2-50 from 1st March 1915: I continued to be in Newington till the 31st January 1917, when I was withdrawn from Newington to revert as typist on Rs.32/-, as it was found

Most Honoured Sir,

A. S. Ladd

Forwarded through the Court of ^{27. 11. 1917} ~~wards~~ ^{Justice} for favourable consideration. The applicant has struck me as an intelligent, clear, quick at picking up the meaning of things & able to write a fairly decent letter. Know little of the relative positions & qualifications of clerks but consider her is capable of something better than the work of a typist.

The applicant J. N. Sabarwal P.D.D. typist in the least of Works Section of the Board's office requests that he may be

(i) exempted from the provisions of Art. 1 of the Public Service Notice so as to enable him being taken on into the regular clerical line, and

(ii) permitted to appear for special tests.

2 For precedents in which typewriting clerks were specially exempted from the general educational qualifications, please see

(F) G.O. No. 38 Ed. 3, d/ the 8th Jan. 1917, No.

(G) 575 Ed. 3, d/ the 25th May 1916 and No.

(H) 80 Ed. 3, d/ the 27th Jan. 1916. These however related to Secretariat clerks whose work was very well reported on; the clerk referred to in the last of the G.O.'s mentioned above has also been allowed to appear for two of the special tests as are open to candidates qualified under Art. 1 of the Public Service Notice vide G.O. No. 680 Ed. 3, d/ the 22nd Jan. 1916.

3 In the present case though Mr. Morrison had not known the clerk was formerly working for a turnover reports that "he is capable of doing at least than the work of a typist" it is significant that the Board awarded no recommendation. - (Vide the act. on p. 4). The Rev. Dept. may now be requested to state whether they desire that the application should be favourably reviewed if so to specify a limit, if any, of the pay to which the typist should be allowed to rise. The allocation of that dept. may also be invited to the marginally noted G.O. and whether typewriting clerks employed in other than the Sect. office have been exempted to hold appointments on pay not exceeding Rs 60 and 50 p. M. respectively.
