No. 4131

SENATE HOUSE, 20 JUN 1917

Enclosures.

FROM

FRANCIS DEWSBURY, ESQ., B.A., LL.B.,

Registrar, University of Madras,

TO

THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

Home (Education) Department,

Stonehouse Hill.

Sir,

In continuation of this office letter No. 3953, dated June 11, 1917, I have the honour to forward herewith a statement from Mr. S. Sengodan expressing his willingness to abide by the rules laid down for the Government of India (University) scholars in appendices II and IV to G.O. No. 563 - Ed1 - dated May 29, 1916. The scholar proposes to sail from Bombay in the second week of July and desires to take the Cape of Good Hope route as it seems to him to be the safest. The Accountant General has been informed of the date of departure of, and the route proposed to be taken by, the scholar in accordance with para 3 of G.O. No. 631, Home (Edn.) Dept., dated May 14, 1917.

I have to request that the scholar may be furnished with a letter of introduction to the Educational Adviser as stated in para 4 of G.O. No. 631, Home (Edn) Dept, dated May 14, 1917.

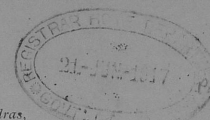

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Wm. Dewsbury

Subject. Letter of intro Duchin to be furnished to Mr. S. Sengudayan, Govt of India Scholar to England.

[2285A] From the Regt University of Madras No. 4131 of the 20th June 1917

In para 3 of L.O. No. 631 of the 14th May 1917, the A.G. was requested to provide Mr Sengudayan with a second class passage to England. The scholar desires to take the Cape of Good Hope route as it seems to him the safest. ^{He has already been granted a first class} Usually passages for State scholars to England are engaged either by the B.S. line or by the P&O line. Govt of India in their letter on p. 10 of L.O. 916 Edl of the 19th Aug 15, authorized this Govt to engage passages for State scholars overland via Marseilles instead of by the Sea route to London during the period of war only. There are instances where scholars were allowed to draw in cash the cost of a second class passage to England by either line minus the discount allowed to Govt, where they preferred to make their own arrangements.

Vide G.O. 698 of the 11th June 1914 and 644 of the 17th July 1912.

2. In these circumstances it is for Consideration whether he may be allowed to choose the Cape of Good Hope route if, in lieu of a free passage to England, he accepts payment in cash of the cost of a second class passage. The ~~Colonial~~ ~~British~~ ~~the~~ ~~Board~~ ~~the~~ P & O line, giving the discount allowed to Govt. 3. The Scholar proposes to sail from Bombay in the second week of July next. Attention is now ~~to~~ solicited to G.O. 771 of the 12th June 1917 in which Mr. J. A. Frost another State Scholar was in accordance with India's instructions conveyed in G.O. 762 Edt of the 12th July 1915, directed to time his departure from India so as not to ~~not~~ arrive in England before the middle September next. It is for Consideration whether the Regt. may in modification of Para 2 to G.O. 631 of the 14th May 1917 be requested to instruct Mr. Saugadagan similarly.

4. Submitted that the Scholar may be provided as stated in Para 4 of G.O. 631 of 14-5-1917 with a letter

It is not known what sea & O & O rates now are. The amount admissible under G.O. 295 and G.O. 26-5-11 was £30/-.
