The Hon'ble Mr. Stone's speech referred to by the Additional Member is printed on pages 7 and 8 of G.O.No.374 Edl., dated the 4th April 1916. The Government have since then received from the D.P.I. a draft scheme for the establishment of an Institute of Commerce in Madras. Almost simultaneously with its receipt, the Government of India also forwarded to this Government for opinion a scheme of the Government of Bombay for the utilisation of the Sydenham College of Commerce and Economics as a central examining body for conducting examinations at various centres in India and for awarding diplomas in Accountancy. In G.O.No.1131 Edl., dated the 27th October 1916, the Government have constituted a Committee to consider and advise on both the above schemes.

2. The following draft answer is submitted for approval:—

Answer:—

"The Director of Public Instruction has submitted a scheme for the establishment of an Institute of Commerce in Madras. The scheme has been referred for consideration to a committee whose report is awaited. Please see G.O.No.1131, Home (Education), dated the 27th October 1916, which has been laid on the E.T."
