Dated 12th February 1917

To

The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras,

M A D R A S.

The humble petition submitted by Mohammed
Hyder ali, Nocruddinpeth, Masulipatam.

Most Humbly and Respectfully sheweth,

1. That the petitioner humbly begs to represent that his son, Mohammed Naseeruddin, who was an applicant for the Intermediate in Arts Examination of 1917 of the Madras University died from heart-failure on the very night, his application fee, a sum of Rs. 24/- was paid into the treasury.

2. That the petitioner begs to point out that he applied to the Registrar, University of Madras, to refund the said amount of Rs. 24/-, as the fact was brought into his notice in time, but that Officer, adhering to principle perhaps, has endorsed in the negative, which is herewith enclosed for reference.

3. That the petitioner further begs to state that the refund may not be paid under any other kind of circumstances, but as this is a case which in no way concerns the misconduct of the applicant, the refund must necessarily be paid.

4. That the petitioner, therefore, prays that the refund of the said amount of Rs. 24/- the application fee of his lost son may be paid to him taking into consideration the petitioners present straitened circumstances and the difficulty he feels -- therefore, in educating his other sons having already lost a --

Re: His letter dated 4th instant.

It is regretted that the refund asked for cannot be granted. The Syndicate has in several similar cases refused to refund fees paid by candidates for University Examinations.
