The Hon'ble Mr. K.R.V. Krishna Rao Pantalu.

Home (Education) department.

69. (a) Is it a fact that in the educational service generally and in the subordinate educational service (collegiate branch) in particular, vacancies have not been filled up for some time?

(b) If so, will Government be pleased to lay on the table the particulars of such vacancies and state the reasons for not filling up the same?

NOTES.

Home (Education) Department.

Information as to the number of posts vacant in (i) the Indian Educational Service (ii) the Provincial Educational Service and (iii) the Subordinate Educational Service will be found on pages 134 - 157 of the Quarterly Civil List. Similar particulars as regards other posts in the department carrying a salary of Rs.30 and upwards are given on pages 50 - 135 of the List of Officers in the Educational Department. When a post is not permanently filled, it is shown as 'vacant' and underneath ^{it} the name of the officer officiating in the post is printed. The Additional Member may be referred to the lists which contain the requisite particulars.

2. ~~vacancies~~ Vacancies in the Indian Educational Service and the Provincial Educational Service are filled by the Government. All other vacancies in posts carrying a salary exceeding Rs.30 per mensem are filled by the D.P.I. The Government or the D.P.I. may desire to test the fitness of an officer before confirming him in a particular post and in such a case he is appointed 'sub protam' or 'officiating' to begin with. This is why certain posts are shown as vacant.

The following draft answer is submitted for approval:-

The Additional Member is referred to the Quarterly Civil List and the List of Officers in the Educational Department which contain the requisite particulars. No vacancy remains long unfilled.

Where, however, it is considered desirable to test the fitness of an officer for a particular post he is in the first instance appointed to officiate in that post and his confirmation follows only on his giving satisfaction in the discharge of his duties.
