Hon'ble Sir,

I am directed to forward for the orders of His Excellency the Governor in Council a letter No.517, dated the 31st January 1917 with its enclosures from the District Judge of North Arcot forwarding an application from M.R.Ry Ravi Varma Avergal, District Munsif, Tirupattur, for permanent exemption from passing the Precise-Writing Test and the Vernacular Test.

The Hon'ble the Judges, are of opinion that the period of exemption from passing the Precise writing test granted in G.O.No. 162 Educational R., dated the 18th May 1915, may be extended for another year and that it is not desirable that the District Munsif should be exempted from passing the Vernacular test.

Sir,

K
(X) In submitting herewith my application in the prescribed form for a permanent exemption from passing the Precise-writing Test and the Vennacular Test (Tamil) I beg to state that the Government was pleased to grant me temporary exemption for 2 years in G.O. No. 162/R, dated 18-5-1915. I appeared for the Precise-writing Test twice. But unluckily I did not pass. Being 40 years of age I find it very difficult to pass examinations now. I feel also the writing difficulty very much. As regards the Tamil I beg leave to point out that I have been in a Tamil district for 2 years and 7 months and have acquired a fair working knowledge of Tamil. I have also been permitted to take down depositions in English by the Government.

Considering these facts and considering my age I request that the District Court may be pleased to recommend me for a permanent exemption from these two tests.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

District Munsiff.

[6-737]

From the Regd. High Court, R.O. 371/17.

d/ the 14th Feb. 1917

Subject: Exemption of M. R. Raj. Ravi
Varnwa Raja S. P. T. Dist. Muzaffar, Tinsuppattur from the Pre-arriving list and the Varnwalar list.

When in 1915 the question of the permanent exemption
of M. R. Raj. Ravi Varnwa Raja came up for consideration the Govt. held that there was no case for such a concession

- vide D.O. No. 340-2 d/ the 9th Feb. 1915 on

- (c) page 12 of G.G. No. 169 Ed. 1, d/ the 16th Feb.
1915. Subsequently on the recommendation of the Dist. Judge, the Rajas was granted a temporary exemption from the test till the date of publication of the results of the examination of Oct. 1916

- (x) G.G. No. 162 (R), d/ the 18th May 1915.

2 It is now stated that the officer appeared for and failed in the test on ^{two} occasions (1915 & 1916) and the Dist. Judge recommends, that in the circumstances mentioned at 'K'

para 2 on pp 14-2 e. f.

of the High Court's letter recorded in G.O. 695 dli. (P) 30.9.11 on pages of the current, the Dist. Munsifs may be permanently exempted not only from the Precis-writing test but also from the second class examination test, which Dist. Munsifs have to pass within two years of their appointment as such, which the Raja has not till now passed

3 The High Court's recommendation that the exemption from the Precis-writing test granted in G.O. No. 162 (R), d/18th May 1915 may be extended for another year and that it is not desirable to grant the exemption from the second class test is significant, since the Honble Judges seldom if ever make any recommendation in such cases. It is perhaps unnecessary for the Govt. to go beyond the High Court's recommendation in this case.

4 Subject to orders a draft letter extending the exemption from the Precis-writing test is subd. As for the second class test the High Court will presumably give the officer one year's time to pass it or extend the period of probation till he passes it. The draft, if approved, may issue with the concurrence of the
