(Education.)

Simla, the 27th February 1917.

From

The Hon'ble Sir E.D. MacLagan, K.C.I.E., C.S.I.,
Secretary to the Government of India.

To

The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Home (Education) Department.

Sir,

I am directed to refer to your letter no. 122, dated the 31st January 1917, with which was forwarded a memorial from the Joint Secretary to the Council of Indian Education, Madras, praying for the establishment of school committees in the Madras Presidency to assist in the development of education in rural areas.

2. In reply I am to say that the Government of India agree with the Government of Madras that there is at present no need for the introduction in the Presidency of a system of school committees such as that suggested in the memorial. The Government of India are therefore unable to accede to the request contained in the memorial and I am to ask that with the permission of the Governor in Council the memorialist may be informed accordingly.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

G. Henderson

for Secretary to the Government of India.
