In continuation of my letter R.O.C.No. 1369 B & G of a notification declaring the Jain Temple at Tirumalai village, Polur Taluk, to be a protected monument, I have the sued under section 33 of Act VII of 1904, the residents of Tirumalai village presented a mahazar contending that the entire extent

extent mentioned in the notification does not belong to the Jain temple and that its trustee cannot ^{enter} into an agreement with Government alienating that portion of the area over which he has no control. The field in question, i.e., S.No. 465/2 is registered as grazing-ground poramboke in the Revenue Accounts and as already reported, contains two Hindu temples, a fresh-water pond and three or four pathways. These have now been excluded and the portion of the site which is actually covered by the Jain Temple and the connected buildings has been demarcated, and registered as a separate number S. No. 508 in the revised notification. The trustee of the temple and the villagers have no objection to the conservation of this survey number under the Act. It measures 25.71 acres in all.

In G.O. No. 430 Home (Education) Department dated 2nd April 1917. The Ancient Jain Temple at Tirumalai was declared to be a protected monument within the meaning of the Act of 1913 and the revised agreement between the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India and the then trustee of the temple. In that G.O. in Col. 2 the schedule appended thereto the said temple is noted to locate in 800 508 of Tirumalai. In fact the temple is in 800 550 of the place.
When the discrepancy was brought to the notice of the authorities it has been stated that the necessary correction was made in G.O. No.
31 dated 6.2.1918. I request that a copy of the G.O. No. 31 dated 6.2.1918 may kindly be furnished to me
