From (Name) C.A. Innes, Esq., I.C.S.,
(Designation) Director of Industries,

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Home (Education) Department.
Through The Accountant General. Madras.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that in accordance with G.O. No. 53 Educational dated 15-1-16, one of the duties of the Superintendent of the Bureau of Information is to go round to see merchants and manufacturers and collect information. As my office is situated far away from business circles and as the superintendent has to go round the city almost every day, he is unable effectively to discharge the duties allotted to him without a proper conveyance. I consider therefore that ^{it} is very essential that he should maintain a Motor cycle. He informs me that a good second hand Motor cycle with a side car is available for sale for Rs. 300/-. I would accordingly request that he may be
