Enhanced rate of subscription to the periodicals - "People's opinion" and "Punjab Weekly Reporter."

pp 3+5 c.f.

Both the I.G. of Police and the D.P.I. have no objection to the payment of increased ^{(subscription) viz} rate of Rs 9 per annum to the periodicals "People's opinion" and "Punjab Weekly Reporter" respectively. From pages 70 and 73 of the statement of periodicals ^{revised} ~~contracted~~ up to the 30th June 1915 it will appear that only one copy of each of these periodicals is being subscribed for, and there seems no objection to the payment of the enhanced rate as the extra cost involved is small, viz Rs 5 per annum. It may be noted in this connection that the heads of departments ^{(except Home (Edn))} have been asked separately to re-entire their list of periodicals to see whether any retrenchment can be effected and their replies are awaited.
