DESPATCHED.

From (Name) C.B. Cotterall Esquire C.I.E., I.C.S.

(Designation) Collector of Godavari.

To The

Secretary to Government,

Sir,

Educational Department,

Madras.

I have the honour to state that T. Subba Rao, the Senior Typist of my Office was exempted from the Upper Secondary Examination for the Senior Typist's place graded Rs. 25--1--35 in G.O. No. 591 dated 1--9--1905. Under the same exemption, he applied for the Revenue and Account Tests and has passed them. He will thus be qualified for a Revenue Inspector's appointment if his exemption is declared to be general instead of special for the typewriter's appointment. T. Subba Rao has 14 years' service, and is a man of good intelligence, trustworthy, and of good family.

Handwritten notes at top left of page 1.

He will make a good Revenue Inspector and is fit for further advancement. I request that the Government will allow the exemption asked for.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

For Collector.

Subject:- Exemption from the examination rules.

T. Subba Rao on whose behalf the present application is made was in the first instance exempted from the upper Secondary examination with a view to his employment as junior typist on Rs 20-1-25 p.m. in the Godavari Collector's office. (G.G. 684 Ed. 1) the 19th Nov. 1904. This exemption was subsequently extended so as to admit of his employment as senior typist on Rs 25-1-30 p.m. in the same office.

2 It is now reported that the candidate has passed the Retention and Account tests and is well fitted for appointment as revenue inspector.
The collector accordingly recommends that the exemption already granted in his case may be declared general.
The remarks of the Revenue Dept.

Go no. 684

The previous exemption was clearly for a typists place; the Collector having reported that his efforts to get a qualified man for a senior typists post had failed. The typist utilized the exemption to pass special tests. As Collector I never submitted any recommendation for exemption for general examination for advancement in the regular line.

2. The Collector reveals he is 'a man of good intelligence, trustworthy and of good family'. In a place like Godavari you ought to get hundreds of qualified men. The applicant is a Brahmin & Brahmins are well forward in education. They do not deserve exemptions as some of the most backward communities. I am against Saichy.

3. As the Collector and the Revenue have recommended, I submit the file for orders.
