The Honourable Mr. M. Venkatapati Raju :

Home (Education) Department.

28. Will the Government be pleased to state whether there are any proposals to increase or decrease the Inspecting agency and if so to what extent and in what directions ?

2. The scheme drawn up in 1914 has not yet been submitted to the Government of India. His Excellency has ordered that it should be revised in the light of the recommendations of the Public Services Commission. In the meanwhile a smaller scheme for the appointment of 'personal assistants' to inspectors and inspectresses of schools and to some of the assistant inspectors has been submitted by the I.P.I. and is separately under consideration.

3. The following draft answer is suggested :

"The question of the general reorganisation of the inspecting agency is under consideration in the light of the recommendations of the Public Services Commission. In the meanwhile the I.P.I. has proposed
