Q.2. Will the Government be pleased to state whether it is under contemplation to re-grade Sub Assistant Inspectors of Schools?

I should like to know at what stage of consideration the existing order with S.A.I. is now. I am aware by your note of 27.12.15. H.M. then agreed with S.A.I. that the existing order should be abandoned and the Director be asked to set up with a statement of absolute minimum requirements.

The need of further progress in connection with the existing order is simply.

The further steps of H.E. the Government do appear to have been taken, as the statement called for.

If it has not yet been stated, it is of course

Home (Em) Dep't.

There are at present six grades of sub-assistant inspectors on Rs 200, Rs 175, Rs 150, Rs 125, Rs 100 and Rs 75 (probationary). In the scheme of reorganization of the inspecting agency it is proposed to retain these six grades and add another grade to be called "probationary" on Rs 50.

M. then agreed with Sir Harold Stuart's note holding that the proposals should be abandoned and the Director be asked to come up with a statement of absolute minimum requirements.

The need of further progress in considering the case has stopped abruptly.
