We are at present asking heads of depts to discontinue subscribing to periodicals wherever possible. I am doubtful therefore whether in the absence of strong reasons we should now add to the list.

I would suggest the attention of the Director be drawn to the record on the subject to be the limit duty and the to be asked whether in the circumstances he still presses for the supply of "grain". He may have good reasons for the request, but he has made it merely as a matter of routine, not being aware of the necessity for special justification. If it is really wanted, Finance would not object.
