To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

HOME (EDUCATION) Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to accord sanction to write off the amount of Rs.3-6-0 being the customs duty paid on a consignment of Europe stores supplied to the Government Training and Secondary School for Mistresses, Coimbatore by Messrs. Cox & Co., London. This amount was paid in the following circumstances. The stores were ordered by the Headmistresses of the school, but she failed to instruct the suppliers to send a copy of the invoices etc., to the Agent for Government Consignments as required

NOTES.

para 16 & 16(a) on p 13 of Com. slip 63 on p 131 of the Manual (slip) required in para 25 of page 231 of the Sea Customs Manual. The Accountant General pointed out that her failure to do so rendered it impossible to refuse to admit clearing charges, customs duty etc., and stated that if the bill for the charges was to be paid in full, a refund of the customs duty levied on the articles might be claimed and remitted into the treasury when received. The Headmistress was accordingly instructed to claim a refund of the amount. She has now submitted copy of a letter from the Assistant Collector of Customs, Bombay stating that the refund of customs duty paid cannot be made as the claim for refund is time-barred, it not having been put in within three months from the date of payment of duty, vide section 40 a p 28 - of the Sea Customs Act. In these circumstances, the Accountant General suggests that the sanction of Government may be obtained to writing off the amount and I beg to apply for it accordingly.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

N. A. Arivie

The Headmistress ~~who~~ appears to have made two mistakes ^{first} in failing to instruct the suppliers to send a copy of the invoice to the Agent for Govt Consignments and secondly in not applying for the refund within the time prescribed, apparently owing to ^{her} ignorance of the rules.
A draft order is submitted for approval.
